

EXECUTIVE BRIEF

From School to Work Without Chasing Yesterday

What leaders should authorize, require, and refuse

Production Unit	PU-B07-C43
Decision status	Controlled learning asset
Audience	Executives, programme owners, statisticians, technical leads
Data	Synthetic examples only

Executive takeaway: Align school-to-work intelligence with changing labour demand, transferable skills, transition evidence, uncertainty, and accountable education and labour institutions.

Why it matters

Training against yesterday’s vacancies can lock learners into obsolete pathways and overstate the certainty of labour-market forecasts.

Illustrative application

A transition review combines graduate outcomes, employer evidence, occupation change, and programme capacity before recommending adaptation.

Minimum approval conditions

- Named accountable owner and lawful purpose
- Defined evidence, provenance, reference period, population, and geography
- Decision-relevant validation and visible uncertainty
- Documented abstention, referral, override, and incident processes
- Accessibility, equity, security, retention, and retirement review

Non-negotiable boundary

The analytical system may inform review. It may not independently authorize benefits, sanctions, enforcement, clinical treatment, school exclusion, displacement, or another consequential action.
